

Selected Online Resources for Teaching with Banned Book Club

- Banned Book Club [Asia for Educators]
Online course (2020) with discussion questions, supplementary videos, interviews, etc. FREE log-in required.
- Banned Book Club [Freeman Book Awards]
Includes “Culture Notes” and “Curriculum Connections” that ground this story in Korean history and discusses its relevance today.
- Masks and Masked Dances [Korean Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism]
Examines the significance of this folk art form.
- Americans and the Development of Civil Society in Modern Korea [Education about Asia]
Examines America’s role in development of Korean democracy. By Donald N. Clark
- ‘Banned Book Club’ Authors Speak Out After Their Work Is Temporarily Banned in Florida [School Library Journal]
Looks at censorship in America in light of the South Korean experience. By Brigid Alverson.
- Banned in the USA: The Mounting Pressure to Censor [Pen America]
Provides current data on what is being banned, where, and how this is being effected.
- Read Banned Books [Penguin Random House Publishing]
Resources for educators, parents, concerned citizens and students for countering censorship and book banning movement in America.
- Korean History & Culture Teaching Resources [Korean Cultural Center Los Angeles and National Korean Studies]
Lesson plans, PowerPoints and more for teaching about Korea.
- Top Ten Things to Know about Korea in the 21st Century [Education about Asia]
Presents an overview of the defining characteristics of Korea today. By Professor Edward J. Shultz
- [Korea Matters for America Matters for Korea \[PDF\]](#) [East West Center]
Details the important economic relationship between the U.S. and South Korea in 2023.

May 2024