

Selected Online Resources for Teaching with An Echo in the City

- Explore All Countries – Hong Kong [CIA: The World Factbook]
Succinct overviews of Hong Kong's geography, environment, people and society, economics, and more.
- The Battle for Hong Kong [PBS]
This Frontline video created in 2020 documents the 2019 demonstrations through the lives of five young adults.
- The Hong Kong Crisis: Historical and Comparative Perspectives [National Consortium for Teaching about Asia]
Video with Professor Jeffrey Wasserstrom analyzing the protests in terms of China's political control, the 1989 Tiananmen protests, and 20th century geopolitics.
- "Hong Kong is Our Home": Hong Kongers Twenty-Five Years After the Handover [Education about Asia]
Article by Professor Christopher K. Tong discussing the erosion of Hong Kong liberties since 1997. Download PDF on page.
- Making Hong Kong China [US-China Institute, University of Southern California]
Video with Professor Michael Davis explaining China's National Security Law for Hong Kong and its implementation.
- [Hong Kong and the Opium Wars \[PDF\]](#) [National Archives of Great Britain]
Lesson plan looking at why the Opium Wars happened, how Hong Kong became a British colony, and the economic factors linked to its growth. Includes background information and primary sources.
- Why Are People Protesting in Hong Kong? [New York Times]
Lesson plan in which students learn more about the movement and compare it to others throughout history to answer the question: Are protests an effective way to bring about change?

Jun 2025