

Selected Online Resources for Teaching with *Spring Comes to the DMZ

- When Spring Comes to the DMZ [Freeman Book Awards]
Includes culture notes, curriculum connections, and further resources.
- A Book to End All Walls [Plough Quarterly Magazine]
An interview with author Uk Bae Lee.
- Korea Matters for America Matters for Korea [PDF] [East West Center]
Publication with data and infographics detailing economic and social relations between our two countries.
- Two Koreas, Two Development Policies [Council on Foreign Relations]
Article with photographs and data explaining how North and South Korea turned out so differently following the Korean War.
- Korean Demilitarized Zone: Opportunity to Help Reduce Economic Asymmetries on the Korean Peninsula [Science Direct]
Article promoting the establishment of nature parks in the DMZ to benefit both North and South Korea.
- Korea's Demilitarized Zone [Google Arts & Culture]
Resources on the history, the plants and animals, plus the art associated with this area.
- How Wildlife Is Thriving in the Korean Peninsula's Demilitarized Zone [The Guardian]
Details how an absence of human activity in the DMZ allows other species to thrive.
- DMZ Forum: Peace and Nature Conservation [DMZ Forum]
Organization which promotes establishing an eco-peace park in the DMZ since 1997; includes annotated links.
- Animals Living in the DMZ [Google Arts & Culture]
Offers stunning visuals with links to further information.
- Korea Lessons for Elementary School [Korea Society]
Lesson plans to spark student interest in Korea.
- Elementary Level Resources – Korea [Asia for Educators]
More lesson plans on Korea.

Jun 2025