

Selected Resources for Teaching with A Bánh Mì for Two

- The Historical Relationship between Vietnam and China [Asia for Educators]
Video with Professor Kathlene Baldanza with links to the presentation images, document-based questions, timelines, vocabulary list, central themes, etc.
- Vietnam: A Historical Introduction [Asia Society]
Overview for educators with links to further information including religion in Vietnam.
- Vibrant Vietnam: A Mosaic of People, Culture and Biodiversity [Google Arts & Culture]
Resource highlighting differences between the northern and southern areas.
- Voyage to Vietnam [Children's Discovery Museum San Jose]
Image rich web materials exploring traditional foods and clothing, ancestor altars, musical instruments, and festivals.
- Silk Roads into Vietnamese History [Education about Asia]
Article by Charles Wheeler details connections between Vietnam and other areas of Asia before 1500.
- The War in Vietnam: A Story in Photographs [National Archives]
Photos with associated teaching activities and image analysis worksheets.
- Viet Nam in the Twenty-First Century: The Unbreakable Bamboo [Education about Asia]
Article by Shelton Woods examines accomplishments and challenges for the state.
- Vietnamese American Experiences Model Curriculum [University of California, Davis]
Lesson plans, primary source documents, teaching strategies and more.
- Making Sense of Vietnamese Cuisine [Education about Asia]
Article by Nir Avieli focuses both on the traditional and the modern Vietnamese foodways.

Oct 2025